Author’s choice (specify CC BY-NC only if you do not want the default CC BY)

Authors and their employers retain all proprietary rights in any process, procedure, or article of manufacture described in the Work.

Authors who are US Government employees may reproduce or authorize others to reproduce the Work, material extracted verbatim from the Work, or derivative works to the extent permissible under US’s law for works authored by US Government employees, and for the author’s personal use or for company or organizational use, provided that the source and any SCIRP copyright notice are indicated, the copies are not used in any way that implies SCIRP endorsement of a product or service of any employer, and the copies themselves are not offered for sale.

In the case of a Work performed under a China Government contract or grant, the SCIRP recognizes that the China Government has royalty-free permission to reproduce all or portions of the Work, and to authorize others to do so, for official China Government purposes only, if the contract/grant so requires.

SCIRP Copyright

It is the formal policy of SCIRP to be granted the nonexclusive copyrights to all copyrightable material in its technical publications and to the individual contributions contained therein, in order to protect the interests of SCIRP, its authors and their employers, and, at the same time, to facilitate the appropriate re-use of this material by others. SCIRP distributes its technical publications throughout the world and does so by various means such as hard copy, microfiche, microfilm, and electronic media. It also abstracts and may translate its publications, and articles contained therein, for inclusion in various compendiums, collective works, databases and similar publications.

No royalties are paid to authors if SCIRP produces revenues by these activities.

Author/Employer Rights

If you are employed and prepared the Work on a subject within the scope of your employment, the copyright in the Work belongs to your employer as a work-for-hire. In that case, SCIRP assumes that when you sign this Form, you are authorized to do so by your employer and that your employer has consented to granting the nonexclusive copyright, to the representation and warranty of publication rights, and to all other terms and conditions of this Form. If such authorization and consent has not been given to you, an authorized representative of your employer should sign this Form as the Author.

In the event the above work is not accepted and published by SCIRP or is withdrawn by the author(s) before acceptance by SCIRP, the foregoing granting the nonexclusive copyright shall become null and void and all materials embodying the Work submitted to IJIS will be destroyed.

The author signs for and accepts responsibility for releasing this material on behalf of any and all co-authors.
